

Provincial Grand Charity Steward

Excellent Companion John Michael Gallagher

Personal

John was born in Dunstable in 1958 and, after leaving school, went to Leeds College of Music where he qualified as a Music Teacher. He then moved to London to pursue a career as a cellist and at the same time study at Trinity College of Music. After working as a freelance cellist he moved to Kent to become a cello teacher with The Kent School of Music where he met and married Lesley. They have one son and one grandson. In his spare time he enjoys cooking, caravanning, walking and of course Freemasonry.
